VOLUME 24 Entered at the Post Office at Janesville, Wis., as second-class matter. JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1880. Published Every Evening Except Sunday, at $7 a Year. NUMBER 193

The severest Democrat in New York is Samuel J. Tilden. To be sure he lost $25,000 in Indiana, but he received $25,000 worth of satisfaction.

If Indiana never did anything else than kill the Democratic party in the campaign of 1880, it is entitled to the gratitude of the American people.

While Hancock is in the explanatory business he might entertain the public by trying to explain why the Democratic party was flattened at the polls.

When a prominent Democrat in New York was asked if he had heard from Indiana and Ohio, said, "yes, I have, and I don't feel very badly about it, for I find I am a thousand dollars richer by the advance in stock."

It would have been better for Wade Hampton if that mule had kicked a little harder, than that he should have entered into a correspondence with Secretary Sherman. A severer kick of the mule could not have been more fatal to him than John Sherman's letters.

The aggregate amount of failures thus far for 1880, is 45 million dollars. For the same time last year they were $1 million. The year before, when resumption had not taken place, they were 197 millions. These facts give the country the cheering news that the business men are out of the woods.

Some will wonder why the Democrats do not continue the practice of chalking "329" on the sidewalks and doors of the residences of Republicans. They expected to continue the practice until November 23, but a little event took place in Indiana last week and seems to have interfered with this sort of a campaign.

The Republican demonstration last night at Madison, was one of the largest known in Wisconsin for years, excepting the one given in honor of John Sherman, in Milwaukee, last week. Over seventeen hundred torches were in the procession. Judge Tourgee, who has gained a national fame by his book entitled "A Fool's Errand," was the chief speaker. The Madison Republicans are wide awake, and will carry the city for Garfield.

There is a good point to this story which is being told on Gabe Bouck, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth district: Meeting one of his plain speaking constituents in Oshkosh one Saturday night, Bouck accosted him in his customary rough manner, and asked him what he was thinking about. "I was thinking," said the man, "that if your father hadn't been Governor of New York, instead of you being a member of Congress, you would be going home to-night with your sawbuck and saw on your shoulder and a salt codfish under your arm for your Sunday dinner."

Governor Smith has issued an executive order officially announcing the death of Chief Justice Ryan. In the order the Governor says:

A great man, an eminent citizen, and a high officer of State, to the sorrow bereavement of his family and friends, and to the irreparable loss of the public service, has fallen at his post with the spotless crime of a great Judge still upon his shoulders. Less than one week ago, he presided on the bench and the bar of the State in the present call of the calendar, good before him in the full confidence and hope, that he would yet long remain to dignify his high judicial office, by his transcendent abilities, learning and refined sense of justice.

It is ordered that as a mark of respect to the memory of Judge Ryan, the supreme court room will be suitably draped in mourning, the flag upon the capitol displayed at half-mast, and on the day of the funeral the State departments be closed.

The case of Rev. Dr. Thomas, in the Rock River conference, has been disposed of for the present. The conference took the ground pretty firmly, that his disbelief in the atonement, in the inspiration of the scriptures, and in literal hell fire, placed it under the necessity of withholding an appointment from him. Accordingly, when the list of appointments was made out, the name of Dr. H. W. Thomas did not appear. This makes but little difference to him. He ranks among the foremost ministers of the West, and it will not be long before he will be called to some important church. A Congregational church at Springfield, Illinois, has tendered him a call, and several other prominent and influential churches have an eye on him. So it will be seen that Dr. Thomas will not be left out in the cold.

The balance of the Democratic campaign will be taken up by Hancock in writing letters explanatory of those he has already written. This will afford amusement for the Republicans, but will keep the Democrats in hot water. When he wrote his letter of acceptance, he was called on by his "friend in Jersey," (you know they believe in a tariff) to explain that. So he wrote a letter explaining his letter of acceptance. The explanatory letter did not seem to be clear to the minds of his "Jersey friends," and he was called on to write another letter, which was sent to Senator Randolph. The second explanatory letter muddled things more than even, and made the Democrats still more disgusted with their superb general. He made himself out a Republican which was not very pleasant to the Democratic mind, and not content with this second explanatory letter, some of his Democratic friends who have no respect for him and little hope of the party, proposed he shall write a third explanatory letter. Some honest Democrats should be appointed a committee of one to call on the superb candidate, and admonish him to stay his pen for the rest of the campaign. Of course, Hancock doesn't know any more of the principles of protection and free trade, than W. H. English knows of generosity, and every letter he writes on the subject makes a "ridiculous blunder" of himself fills the party with disgust.

THE ALPENA.

Special to the Gazette.
CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The lives lost by the Alphea are estimated at from sixty to one hundred. The body of a boy has been found near Holland, to-day, and that of a woman, last night, both unidentified. Mrs. McConnell's trunk with letters has been found. Dwellers along the shore are enriching themselves with the wreckage.

PORTAGE.
A Fifty Thousand Dollar Fire this Morning.

Special to the Gazette.
MADISON, Oct. 20.—A fire at Portage this morning, destroyed Pettibone's block. It first caught in Goodman's tailor shop; destroyed Goodman's clothing establishment, J. E. Wells & Co., hardware store and tin shops, Leomin, Gallett & Broese knitting works, which employed fifty hands; also a paint shop, Old Fellow's hall, the armory of Guppy Guards, and several other smaller shops. The loss will reach $50,000.

RYAN'S FUNERAL.

Special to the Gazette.
MADISON, Oct. 20.—Preparations are being perfected by the State officers for the funeral of our eminent citizen, Judge Ryan. A special train will be furnished at 8 o'clock a. m., Friday, to convey the body to Milwaukee, which will be escorted by State officers and Justices of the Supreme Court, the Bar Association of Madison, and other prominent citizens, reaching that city about 11 o'clock, where the funeral will be taken in charge by the Bar Association of Milwaukee. The body will lie in state at the Plankinton House for two hours. The funeral services will take place about 2 p. m., at St. James' church, and the remains interred in Forest Home cemetery.

FIRES.

Special to the Gazette.
Piqua, O., Oct. 20.—O. W. Leonard & Daniel's oil mill and warehouse was burned this morning. Loss $100,000.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—Benjamin's shoddy warehouse was burned this morning. Five women were burned to death and others injured.

COLLISION.

Special to the Gazette.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—A collision took place on the Dayton road at Jones station to-day. Twenty people were scalded but none fatally.

WADE HAMPTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Wade Hampton is giving the Democracy a great deal of annoyance by his absurd posting before the public. The Washington Post this morning gives him the following sharp rebuke, on account of his practical challenge to Secretary Sherman to fight a duel: "Senator Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, insists upon turning himself into a Republican campaign document."

GARFIELD.

The Business Men's Club of Indianapolis Visit the Republican Candidate at Mentor.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19.—The Business Men's club of Indianapolis, to the number of about 400, paid General Garfield a visit at his Mentor home this morning. The club is composed of the most prominent business men of the capital of Indiana. Their uniforms are linen dusters and three-cornered straw hats, the costume being a "take-off" on the Democratic Jefferson club of Indiana. Visitors arrived in Cleveland shortly before 9 o'clock, and stopped long enough to breakfast at the Union depot. There were thirteen cars in a train, composed of palace and sleeping coaches, and one baggage car. The train reached General Garfield's farm at about 10 o'clock, and the Indiana visitors signalled their arrival by firing a cannon which they had brought with them on a baggage car. Having alighted and formed into line under the leadership of their Captain, M. McLaughlin, Esq., and headed by their band, the column moved up the long lane leading to the General's house. They formed in front of the residence, and when General Garfield appeared upon the piazza, three rounds of ringing cheers went up, and Captain McLaughlin stepped forward and spoke, declaring the history of the club, its part in the campaign, and eulogistic of the wise financial policy of the Republican administration.

INDIANA.

A Democratic Proposition to Fuse with the Nationals.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 19.—The negotiations looking to a fusion of nationals and Democrats on the electoral ticket came to a head this afternoon. James Buchanan, otherwise "The Plan," while in the office of Secretary of State Shunklin, was approached by Joseph W. Nichols, a defeated candidate for the state senate from this county, and nephew of Senator McDonald, with a proposition to combine the votes of the Democratic and national parties on a split electoral ticket. To this Buchanan responded: "I do not propose to entertain any such proposition as that, and if I did it would not be from the Democratic party. Of what avail was your arrangement with Yeagley and Parker? They could benefit you nothing, and no fusion that can be arranged with the Democrats by any one pretending to represent the national party will add strength to your ticket. The national voters do not intend to make terms with either of the old parties and cannot be controlled in their interest." This was the substance of the conversation, which, as is usually the case when "The Plan" is engaged, was conducted almost solely by him. This offer, coming from the source it did, and right on the heels of the conference of the leaders of the party last night, has revealed an unlooked for weakness among the Democrats. There can be but little expectation upon their part of carrying the State if they are willing to sell half of their electoral votes to the nationals for less than fifteen thousand votes.

CHIEF JUSTICE RYAN.

The Funeral of the Late Chief Justice Ryan in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 19.—The remains of Chief Justice Ryan, who died at Madison this morning, will be brought here by special train Friday. A meeting of the Milwaukee bar has been called for to-morrow forenoon to take formal cognizance of his death. The Hon. A. R. Butler, will deliver an eulogium upon the deceased. The body will lie in state at the Plankinton on Friday, when the funeral will take place. Bishop Welles, it is thought, will conduct the burial services. Flugs are at half-mast here and in other Wisconsin cities. Milwaukee has been the home of Judge Ryan since 1848, and he is remembered with feelings of the utmost respect by the community in general. The brilliant mental qualities which have rendered him famous throughout the Nation were developed here during the many years which he practiced before the local courts.

SENATOR EDMUNDS.

He is Re-Elected Senator by the Vermont Legislature.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 19.—The two Houses to-day proceeded separately to elect a United States senator. In the House George F. Edmunds, the present senator, was unopposed by the Republicans, and Bradley W. Smailey by the Democrats. The vote resulted: Edmunds, 203; Smailey, 16; not voting, 18. In the Senate Edmunds was the only candidate presented, and received all the votes.

A GRAND RALLY.

The Grand Republican Rally and Torch Light Procession at Madison.

MADISON, Oct. 19.—The grandest political demonstration ever witnessed at the Capital of Wisconsin, occurred to-night, on the occasion of the visit of Judge A. W. Tourgee, author of "A Fool's Errand." The torchlight procession started at 7 o'clock from the City Hall, and marched round Capitol Park and through the principal residence quarters. Seventeen hundred and fifty torch-bearers were in line embracing 1,000 from the Capital city and 750 from Mazomanie, Stoughton, Baraboo, and the towns adjacent to Madison. The transparencies were numerous and exceedingly humorous and comical. Six brass bands and a large drum corps were in procession. Residences along the line of march were profusely decorated with Chinese lanterns, transparencies, etc., the illumination of many places being grand beyond description. Not one man of this large procession could gain admission to the Assembly chamber to listen to Judge Tourgee's speech. The hall was densely packed long before the procession reached the capitol park hundreds and hundreds of people had been turned away, unable to gain admission. Judge Tourgee made a speech similar to the one made in Chicago. The speech was eagerly listened to by the enormous crowd, who frequently interrupted him by enthusiastic applause.

ALPENA.

The Vessel Goes Down in the Great Gale of Saturday.

HOLLAND, Mich., Oct. 19.—The steamer Alphea has certainly gone down. The debris is floating ashore near the harbor. At Sangaticum also some of the wreck came ashore, among which is one of her life-boats. Her piano was found this morning, with life-preservers and numberless bits of furniture, parts of her wheel, etc., all from one to five miles north of Holland harbor. Up to this moment one body has been found.—Mrs. Bradley, said said to be the wife of a rich banker of New Mexico. More wreckage is picked up hourly, and the gloom of the relatives of the lost ones deepens with the receipt of each succeeding news item from the beach. Captain Benthin arrived in person this afternoon, and has gone to the beach to superintend matters. The terrible disaster has cast a gloom over the whole coast, and even old sailors seem to have an aspiration to remedy any chances with gales of such power and duration.

The loss is fifteen of the crew and twenty-nine passengers. There is now no hope that any of them are saved.

THE METHODISTS.

APPLETON, Oct. 19.—The business session of the conference to-day was devoted entirely to committee work. But little additional business will be brought before the conference at this session. Many of the ministers who are certain of being returned to their present locations have returned home, having become wearied at the length of the session. The cabinet have not yet held any meetings, consequently the assignments have not been even considered. This delay is all owing to the Carhart trial, as this must be settled before any of the appointments can be made. It is reported on good authority that Carhart is turning his own case. Bishop Harris has become tired of his way of conducting his defense and has put his foot on it. It is the general opinion of outsiders that a majority of the committee will find him guilty of nearly all the charges preferred against him. The committee will convene daily. The trial will last until Saturday. This evening the conference was addressed by Rev. Mr. McCormack, of Wauquesha.

MILITARY REUNION.

ATLANTA, Oct. 19.—The feature of the military reunion to-day was the grand parade. The troops marched through the streets amid great enthusiasm. About 10 o'clock the military reached Oglethorpe Park, where Gen. W. T. Hunt, commandant of the Atlanta Barracks, took formal command of the brigade. At 2 o'clock Gov. Colquhoun and staff rode into the park, and were greeted with a salute of seventeen guns by the Fifth Artillery of the regular army. The Governor reviewed the brigade.

REPUBLICAN ENTHUSIASM.

Oconomowoc, Oct. 19.—Hon. Charles G. Williams addressed a large and enthusiastic audience in Mann's hall this evening. This is the second Republican meeting of the campaign, and from the spirit that seemed to animate the Republicans in this section a large majority may be counted on for Garfield and Arthur from the old time Democratic county of Waukesha.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

From our Special Correspondent.
CHICAGO, Oct. 16, 1880.
The Republican county ticket, is considered by both parties to be the strongest ever put forward, and no doubt is retained but it will be elected by a large majority. Many Democrats say they will vote for it.

A large building will soon be erected for the manufacture of carriage and wagon springs, by Michigan capitalists. About 150 skilled mechanics will be employed. This will be a material addition to our manufacturing interests.

The fine new depot of the C. & N. W. Railway, now nearing completion, will have a large clock in the tower which can readily be seen a quarter of a mile. It will face four ways and be a great accommodation to the public at large.

A St. Louis merchant purchased three lots on the west side, paying $9,000 for the same; he lately moved to Chicago and will erect a handsome residence on the above.

Some of our first class machine shops are very busy getting out watch making material and machinery, while our stove foundries are running to their fullest capacity. One prominent firm is constructing a large quantity of grain elevator machinery, for the Port Royal company of South Carolina.

One of our soap manufacturers ships 250,000 pounds per day; their daily printing expenses average $500.

The Troch. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" act directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the Throat and Larynx, restore a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. Speakers and Singers find the Troches useful.

A COUGH, COLD, CATARRH or Sore Throat requires immediate attention, as neglect often results in some incurable Lung Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will almost invariably give relief. Imitations are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. The genuine Brown's Bronchial Troches are sold only in boxes.

TAX NOTICE!

STATE OF WISCONSIN, 1880.

CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE.

I hereby give notice to all persons interested, that I will make application to the Circuit Court for the county of Rock, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held in the Court room in the city of Janesville on the 30th day of November, 1880, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, for judgment against the several lots, pieces and parcels of land described in the report of said Court, for the unpaid taxes levied by the Common Council of the City of Janesville, for the year 1880, and charges upon such lots, pieces and parcels of land, to be reported delinquent for said year and for an order of sale of the same. All persons interested therein are required to attend at such time of said Court and offer their defense if any they may have to such application.

J. M. HASELTON, City Treasurer.

BRIEF LETTERS.

—October begins to warm up a little from its chill.

—The horses of C. T. Wilcox, which were put in the pound, were yesterday afternoon sold at auction to pay charges. Dr. Martin being the purchaser.

—Henry Rogers is doing some excellent training in C. H. Tall's house. Those who are capable of judging work of the brush, pronounce it as extra good work.

—Mr. Hugh Chapin and family desire to return thanks to their friends for the many kindly acts and words of sympathy called forth by the death of their son and brother.

—The first ward grocery store, lately run by J. J. the victim of the midnight robbers, is now under the proprietorship of Mrs. Matilda Parker, who will attend to the business in person.

—Last evening Senator Richardson and H. H. Blanchard spoke to an audience of fair size at Hanover, and the hearers seemed pleased with both addresses, and exhibited considerable enthusiasm over the Republican doctrines so clearly presented.

—The funeral services of Chauncey Ed. son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parker, will be held to-morrow at his late residence on Johnson road, in the town of Harmony, at 10 o'clock, a. m.; and at the 1st M. E. church in this city at 10:45 a. m. Services are to be conducted by Rev. H. Sewell.

—A very quiet wedding occurred this morning the contracting parties being Mr. Hiram Kelsey, and Miss Calista A. Stevens, Rev. T. P. Sawin tying the knot. Mr. Kelsey is a resident of Vermont, and the newly wedded ones left this afternoon for that State, where they will make their home. May joy go with them and keep with them.

—We are in receipt of a communication from one of our citizens calling attention to the frequent violation of the ordinance preventing fast driving across the bridges. About once in so often this subject has come up, and for a time there is an enthusiastic attempt to have the law enforced, and then there is a season of laxity. Just now seems to be the lax season. Where, oh, where, are the officers of the law?

—That Democratic convention of the First Assembly district seems to be hard to drum together. The official call for the 15th has been standing in the columns of the Democratic organ for several weeks, and though that day has come and gone without any convention being held, the notice keeps its place. It looks rather odd to find in a paper dated the 20th a call for a meeting on the 15th, but then, since Indiana has been heard from, it matters little.

—Lieutenant Andrews and Brown, of the Rifles, went to Lake Koshkonong last evening, to see about Sergt. Childers, but failed to find where or how he was. In fact no one in or about Edgerton seemed to know anything about the accident, and the searchers returned almost believing that the reported accident was not based on fact, but to-day noon Lieut. Andrews received a telegram stating that Sergt. Childers had been dangerously wounded, and was lying at the Lake View house at Koshkonong, Wisconsin. They with others will go there at once to see him, and render him care if needed. Murphy, the man who did the accidental shooting, was from Chicago, and has returned there. He was seen at the depot here on his way through, and corroborated the report already given in the Gazette as to the manner in which the accident occurred.

THE GUARDS.

The great parade took place at Atlanta yesterday morning. The troops reached Oglethorpe park about 1 o'clock, and General W. T. Hunt, commandant of the Atlanta Barracks, took formal command of the brigade. In the afternoon Governor Colquitt reviewed the brigade. The Governor and staff were greeted by a salute of artillery.

About 3,000 soldiers are in camp which is located about half a mile from the central portion of the city. Last evening there were a number of private parties, and to-day is laid the corner stone of Memorial hall, and to-night will take place the festival of the Mystic Owls, which will be an all night one.

ALIVE AT ORFORDVILLE.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign was held at Orfordville last evening, and was addressed by Hon. Pliny Norcross. The audience was so large that all could not get an entrance. The Wide Awake club was out in full force, and it is a wide awake organization indeed, giving life to the whole town. It includes thirty-eight active, uniformed members, and is commanded by Capt. George W. Van Orman, Lieut. E. S. Taylor, and Sergt. J. S. Sabin. The Garfield and Arthur club is an active organization, and is doing efficient work. It is officered as follows: President, James Mow; Vice President, Henry Peterson; Second Vice President, Fred Smiley; Secretary, H. A. Seavlin; Executive Committee, E. S. Taylor, H. A. Seavlin, George W. Van Orman, Frank Baker, J. J. Sabin, and Lyman Smiley. At the meeting last evening, a fine time and drum band did excellent service, and all the needfuls for an enthusiastic and successfully were at hand.

PERSONAL.

—General Bintliff, of Darlington, was in the city last night.

—J. D. King is attending to postoffice business in Wisconsin for a few weeks now, and gets home oftener.

—R. W. King went to Chicago, to-day, on business which will prove of interest to his customers as the holidays draw near.

—Mrs. M. M. Jackson and Miss A. A. Smith returned this afternoon from California, where they have been for the past year.

—Mrs. Bennett, of New York city, who has been visiting relatives here for the past four months, started for her home this morning.

—Will Spang has returned from Huron, Dakota, and will spend the winter here, while his father will stay there. Will has had a siege of typhoid fever, and is not as rugged as usual.

—Rev. E. Hart, of White Pigeon, Michigan, who preached in the Presbyterian church here two Sundays last February, was among these lost in the wreck of the Alpena. His wife was with him, and is also reported as among the lost.

—Edwin J. Samuels, who for years has been the clerk and operator at the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul depot here, has been appointed agent of the new station at Albany. The position is a good one, and Samuels is not only well fitted for it, but his attention to business and his industry, will ensure the well keeping of the company's interests there. He expects to enter his duties of the new position within a few days, and will soon move his family to that place. It is not yet known who will be his successor here.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRESTON & EVANSON, DEBILITATED. The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 42 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 33 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m., at 37 degrees above; and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 50 degrees above. Clear.

ROCK COUNTY BAR.

The members of the Rock County Bar Association are requested to meet at the office of Eldridge & Fethers this evening at 7:30 o'clock, to take appropriate action concerning the death of Chief Justice Ryan. A. A. JACKSON, President.

Attention, Rifles!

All members of the Bowler City Rifles are ordered to be at their armory Monday evening, October 25, at 7:30 o'clock, sharp, for annual inspection. By order of J. B. LA GRANGE, Captain Commanding.

MILTON JUNCTION.

—Mr. Amos Colgrove, of Parina, Ill., is spending a few days in town visiting friends.

—We learn that Mr. Jephtha Randolph, a former resident of Milton, but for some years past a resident of Parina, Ill., died at his home in that place last week, of inflammation of the kidneys. His sudden death will be a surprise to many relatives and acquaintances in Wisconsin.

—The wind storm of Saturday discomfited anything of the kind known here for years. Some few tobacco sheds were blown down among which was one of Frank Bros. on W. Madison St., near this village, and one belonged to the Nesbit Bros., near Grass lake, each containing from 5 to 6 acres. S. C. Carr and Wm. Hemphill, each had a part of the tops of their wind mills blown off, and numerous other casualties of like nature occurred in this section.

—The Republican rally Saturday evening was a success, notwithstanding the severe storm. Had the evening been pleasant the hall would not have contained the crowd. As it was, seventy-five to one hundred gathered and listened to speeches from Capt. J. M. Stanton, H. B. Baxter, Esq., of Janesville, and Garfield and Arthur club was organized, of which Mr. A. B. Spaulding, is President; R. F. Tisworth, secretary. The people are fully alive and will turn out whenever the weather will permit. Another rally is advertised for Wednesday evening at College hall. Prof. T. W. Sanders, formerly of the college and now practicing law in Milwaukee, will be the speaker of the evening.

—There is a movement on foot to convert the old warehouse on the Northwestern track into a grain elevator, to be occupied by an enterprising firm of grain shippers.

—A pigeon shoot came off near this village Tuesday afternoon in which quite a number of the shooting fraternity in this section participated, gun prize worth $100 was on the programme but as there was not enough crack shots from elsewhere to get the requisite number of entries, it was not put up.

—The Rev. G. W. Lawrence, of Janesville, will preach in the M. E. church of this place, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—Uncle Henry Crandall and wife, of Edgerton, spent several days in town last week visiting.

—Uncle John R. Batts and wife, returned from Iowa last week, whither they had been for a week visiting relatives.

—Mr. A. W. Maxon had an auction sale of machinery, stock, corn, etc., on Wednesday.

—Dan Wood sold his 1880 crop of tobacco last week for 9 1/2 cents.

—D. E. Thorpe and wife, Mrs. Bitten and daughter, and Mrs. R. Carter left here on Tuesday for Chicago, with express tickets and a week's leave of absence.

—Report says that between Edgerton and Cambridge, a distance of 72 miles, there are fifteen tobacco sheds laid low from Saturday's wind; in that ratio the aggregate number through the tobacco region in Dane county alone would be enormous, and the crop was so very dry and brittle at the time that many crops will necessarily be nearly ruined.

—The duck hunters are having fine fun at their favorite pastime these days. The past few days it has been simply a slaughter.

—Miss Minnie Burdick returned home from Chicago on Tuesday, where she has spent a week as a guest at Mr. M. J. Holmes.

—An infant son of S. O. Soper died on Monday at four o'clock, of death resulting from teething. It was about six months old. The parents have the sympathy of the whole community in their loss.

—Miss McAdams has abandoned her Clear Lake residence for the winter, and moved to town. She was thrown from a wagon a week or two since, fracturing her right arm, which was doubtless the reason for the change.

—The Grand Central, 667 Broadway, New York City, has the finest rooms, elegantly furnished, of any hotel in New York City. It is now under the management of Frederick McKim & Co., of the famous Marlborough Hotel, and is fast becoming very popular with the traveling public. Don't forget these facts when you visit New York.

COOKSVILLE.

—There will be a Republican meeting on Friday evening Oct. 22. Let everybody take due notice and be on hand and Democrats are especially invited to attend. Good speakers will be present.

—Oh, what a change in the weather, Friday hot—uncomfortable, Saturday the wind just blew, and blew, and blew down fences, tipped over small buildings, and wind mills just went kiting, and Sunday a regular winter's day, with snow enough to snowball with.

—The Rock County Convention, embracing the lodges of Good Templars in Rock county, will meet in Cooksville on Monday, the 25th, and a lodge sociable will be held in the new basement room on Monday evening, to which the public are cordially invited. Tuesday evening there will be an address from some prominent speaker of the order.

—Rev. G. W. Lawrence will deliver a lecture, Saturday evening, the 30th inst., in the church, on "National Prohibition," and preach, Sunday, at 11 o'clock A. M., the 31st.

—Mr. Charles Boynton, wife and daughter, from near Springfield, Ill., were visitors at B. S. Hoxie's last week. Mr. B. is one of the large farmers and stock growers of Illinois.

—Those who had apples to gather at a week or two hence, have now simply to pick them up from the ground, for the wind Saturday took down trees as well as apples.

—Mr. Charles Miller is grazing about one hundred steers, two and three years old; a part of them will be fatted this winter.

—A. J. Roberts and Croft & Sherer. How glad when death, relenting, sheathes his dart, And when Spring Blossom's used, at once departs.
